Robin Raina, CEO of Ebix, Inc. rang the opening bell of the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) on Wednesday, underlining the company's expansion plans in the Indian market.

BSE Managing Director and CEO Ashish Kumar Chauhan felicitated Raina with a BSE memento to mark this occasion, as Raina lit the welcome lamp to start the trading for the stock exchange.

The event is an acknowledgment of Ebix's commitment to invest in India and endorse Ebix CEO Robin Raina's vision of strengthening the Indian government's efforts to work for the betterment of education and healthcare in the country. Ebix is a leading international supplier of On-Demand software and E-commerce services to the insurance, financial, e-governance and healthcare industries.

Robin Raina said, "The expansion of Ebix presence in India and the formation of two joint ventures in recent months illustrate our commitment to invest in India and be one of the leaders in the field of e-health, e-learning, e-governance and insurance.

He added that as the Indian Government is one of the largest buyers of technology in the world the company wants to play a role in shaping & implementing the Government's vision to build a digital India.

Apart from entrepreneurship, Robin Raina who runs Robin Raina Foundation (RRF), a charitable organization, is building 6,000 free homes for slum dwellers in Delhi without any financial support from the Government or any other agency.
